

HEALTH RESTOR'D.

Medical Dispensary,
Double Spread Eagle, No. 11, Little
 Tower-Hill; LONDON;

The Surgeon of the above Dispensary, returns his most grateful acknowledgement to the numerous Patients who have honored him with their confidence, since its first Establishment, and informs the afflicted, that for their more private accommodation, he has opened a back door to the Surgery the first of the right-hand of the Passage, leading from Tower Hill, and continues to cure every species of the FRENCH SCURVY, from the slightest infection to the most confirm'd Lues, by safe and easy remedies, adapted to the different constitutions of the patients, and in order to accommodate every class of both sexes, those whose circumstances will not admit a larger deposit, may have medicines made up for them in parcels at 2s 6d each—Seamen may depend on being treated in a manner agreeable to their mode of living, and may be furnished with a Preventive Powder, which if made use of immediately after the connexion will prevent the Veneréal Virus taking effect—Family and sea medicine chests fitted up with choice medicines, calculated as well to restore health as to prevent diseases, to which English constitutions are liable from a change of climate.—Cancers, fistulas, old obstinate ulcers, the scurvy, gleet, feminal weakness, and the dropsy cured without tapping,—Attendance in Surgery and Midwifery on reasonable Terms, and Letters (post-paid) answered immediately.

The Public are requested to beware of ignorant Pretenders, which abound in this metropolis, particularly of a High German Doctor, who was some time since a menial servant at this Dispensary.

Note. Elastic and all other Trusses for Ruptures &c.
